

Chapter 2-3 Test Review

Terms and People

Indentured servants

New Amsterdam

Roger Williams

Ann Hutchinson

William Bradford

John Winthrop

Bacon's Rebellion

Virginia Company

Mayflower Compact

Triangular trade

Headright System

Mercantilism

Navigation Acts

Salutary Neglect

Dominion of New England

Iroquois Confederation

Stamp Acts

Balance of Trade

Cash crop

Stono Rebellion

Jonathan Edwards

Ben Franklin

William Pitt

Proclamation Line of 1763

Ideas

Problems with Jamestown and reason for its success

Early relations between Plymouth and NA

Reasons for establishing various colonies: Jamestown, Plymouth, New Amsterdam, Pennsylvania, Georgia, Maryland

Early forms of government in the colonies (general types)

Reasons for the development of slavery and plantations

Impact of the Enlightenment

Impact of the Great Awakening

Reasons for the Salem Witch Trials

French and Indian War: Parties involved, results and impact on relations between England and Colonies

History of the relationship between England and colonies from 1600s to 1763